BLUE MASS

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 15TH
10:00 A.M.

At this Mass, we recognize those currently serving as emergency responders - Police, Firefighters, and Medical Personnel - as well as those who have died in the line of duty. This occasion brings a greater awareness of those who serve faithfully, often placing others' lives and safety above their own.

Our lives are gifts from God, given to us that we might in turn give our lives in service to Him and to others. Those who have dedicated their lives in service as emergency responders are living out this truth, and we gather together to celebrate them.

PREPARATION CLASSES

Prior to the Baptism of a child, parents and godparents are required to attend a Baptism Class. The next class, is this Tuesday, September 10th, 2019, 6:00 p.m. in the Parish Office Building Conference Room. For more information and/or to register for the class, please contact:

Sara Beth Cook, 870-897-3279 or

Holy Hour

During Eucharistic Adoration, we "watch and wait", we remain "silent" in His Presence and open ourselves to His Graces which flow from the Eucharist ... By worshipping the Eucharistic Jesus, we become what God wants us to be! Like a magnet, The Lord draws us to Himself and gently transforms us.

Come, be with JESUS

POST-SUMMER CHALLENGES

With any luck, summer delights will continue a while past last weekend's Labor Day: refreshing recreation (with maybe an occasional swim) or enjoyable relaxation on the deck (with tasty outdoor grilling). Truth is, for some of us, this year's Labor Day came way too early. With many schools back in session for a while already, mealtimes and driving schedules needed readjustment to coordinate youth sports with adult commitments. Some religious education and parish programs resumed, too. No surprise, then, that this weekend's scriptures sound a little like post-summer challenges. For instance, Wisdom reminds us that believers in God can never be content with "timid deliberations" and "unsure plans." Paul challenges longtime friend and follower Philemon to "let the good you do be voluntary." Jesus instructs "great crowds" traveling with him—including us—on three things necessary for all true disciples to accomplish. On this early autumn weekend, our scriptures describe disciples' lifelong labors.

“Así como amamos y cuidamos a los miembros de nuestra familia, también estamos llamados a cuidar a los miembros de la familia del cuerpo de Cristo. Estamos llamados a cuidar a todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, honrando a cada persona como única, sagrada y creada a imagen de Dios.

USCCB, Folleto para el boletín “Abramos nuestros corazones”

Por solidaridad y paz en nuestra familia humana del mundo entero: para que trabajemos juntos con el fin de proteger la vida de los que son más vulnerables, roguemos al Señor.

Durante la Adoración Eucarística, "observamos y esperamos", permanecemos "en silencio" ante Su Presencia y nos abrimos a Sus Gracias las cuales fluyen de la Eucaristía ... Al adorar a Jesús en la Eucaristía, nos convertimos en lo que Dios quiere que seamos. Como un imán, el Señor nos atrae hacia Sí Mismo y nos transforma suavemente.

Ven, sé con JESÚS

DESAFÍOS POSTERIORES AL VERANO

Con algo de suerte, los placeres del verano continuarán aún después del fin de semana del Día del Trabajo: recreación estimulante (quizá con un chapuzón en la alberca) o relajación agradable en la terraza (con sabrosas parrilladas al aire libre). La verdad es que, para algunos de nosotros, este año el Día del Trabajo se adelantó demasiado. Con clases escolares que ya empezaron hace tiempo, los horarios para las comidas y el ir a dejar a los niños a la escuela necesitaron reajustarse para coordinar los deportes de los chicos con los compromisos de los adultos. Algunos programas de catequesis y actividades parroquiales ya también empezaron. No debe extrañarnos que las Escrituras de este fin de semana parezcan un poco como desafíos posteriores al verano. Por ejemplo, el libro de la Sabiduría nos recuerda que los creyentes en Dios nunca pueden contentarse con “tímidas deliberaciones” y “planes inseguros”. Pablo desafía a un seguidor de él y además amigo de toda la vida, Filemón, para “dejar que lo bueno sea voluntario”. Jesús enseña a grandes multitudes” que viajan con él, incluyéndonos, en tres cosas necesarias para que todos los verdaderos discípulos lo logren. En este anticipado fin de semana de otoño, nuestras Escrituras describen las labores de toda la vida de los discípulos.
